Every Boy and Soldier Wants This Song, Which is Dedicated to the Boy Scouts of America

Hoe Your "Little Bit" In Your Own Back Yard
Where The Boy Scouts Go, 'Tis Hoe, Hoe, Hoe!

Words by
DEE DOOLING CAHILL.

Music by
J. E. ANDINO.

Chorus.

Boys in the trenches can-not fight, you know, With-out the boys at home with the hoe;

For sharp is the hoe, and straight is the row. Where the Boy Scouts go, 'tis hoe, hoe, hoe! Feed-ing the soldiers, ev-ry Scout should know, Means the boys at homemust is the greatest organization for the teaching of LOYALTY. Every Scout realizes the significance of the word LOYALTY and tries to apply it in his daily life.

THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

LOYALTY is the word today, tomorrow, and always with THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA.

Help to make the song. "Loyalty Is The Word Today," endure for all time by becoming a SCOUTMASTER, thereby breathing into the life of the boy the spirit of this song.

At present there are 300,000 men and boys in this Movement, and the organization is growing daily. There is urgent need for more Scoutmasters. American men over the age of 21, of good character, are requested to get into touch with the local Scout organization, or write for particulars to the
